

High-Impact Strategies for Equitable Student Engagement in the Science Classroom

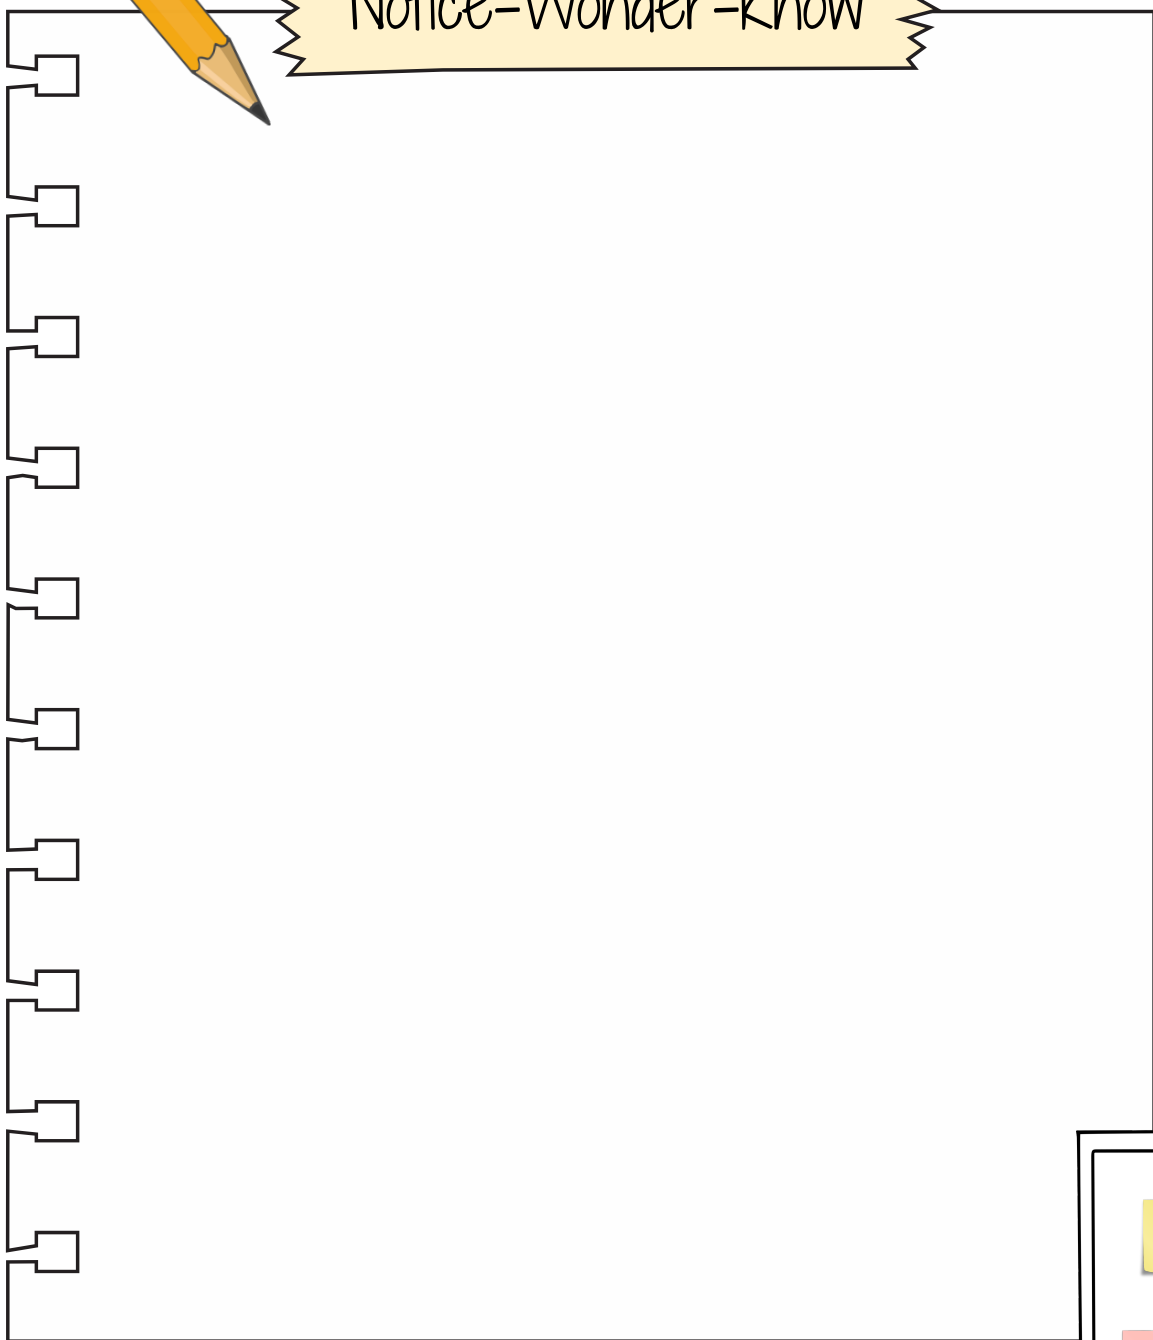

Notice-Wonder-Know

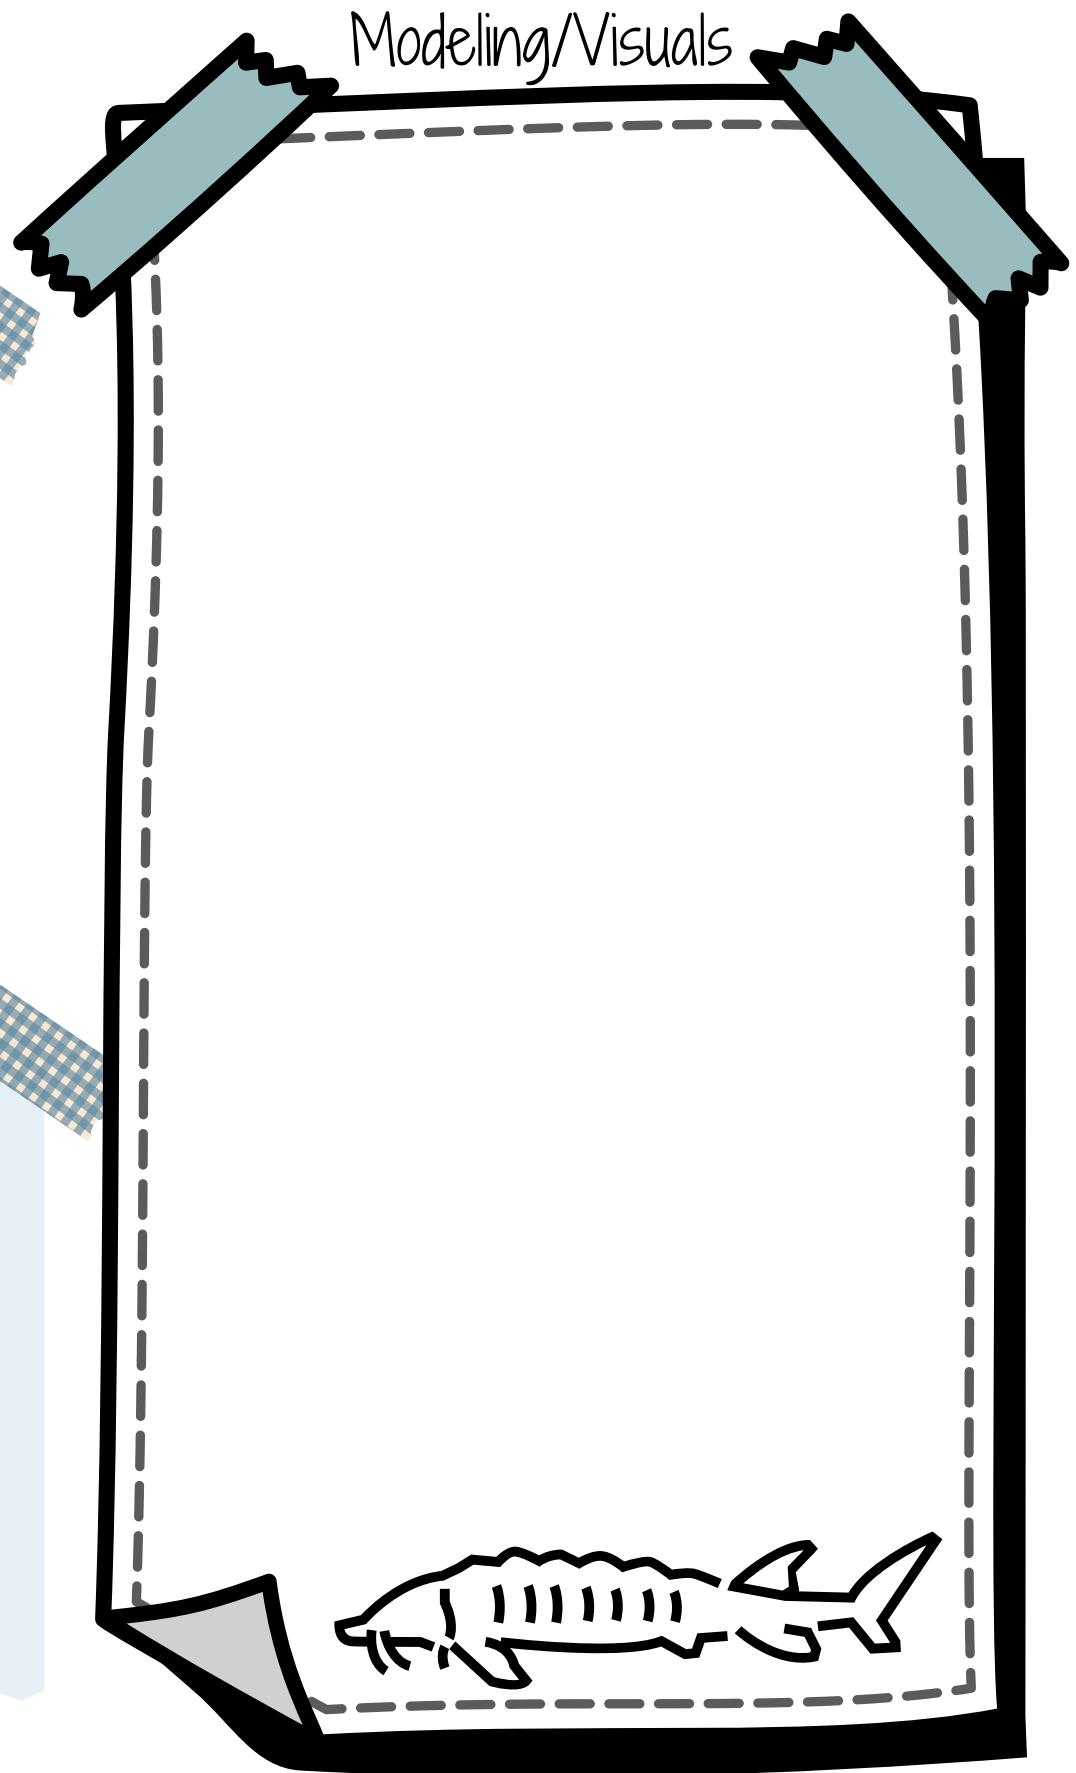

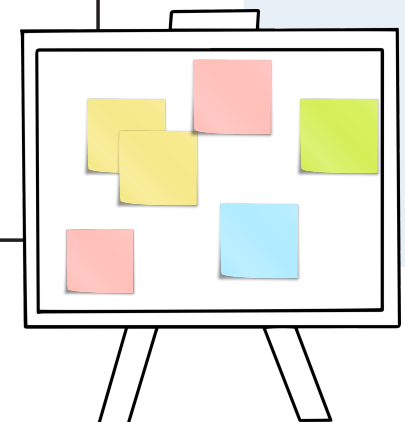

Scaffolded Discourse

Modeling/Visuals

Scientist Circle

High-Impact Strategies for Equitable Student Engagement in the Science Classroom

Contextualized Learning

The WIDA 4 Key Language Uses are Narrate, Inform, Explain, and Argue, representing the most prominent ways language functions in school across all subjects and grade levels, serving as a framework for language development by focusing on telling stories (Narrate), sharing facts (Inform), clarifying "how/why" (Explain), and persuading with evidence (Argue).

