

EUDIW Is Coming

ICANN 87 – Bali – Techday

Jaromír Talíř • 19. 10. 2026

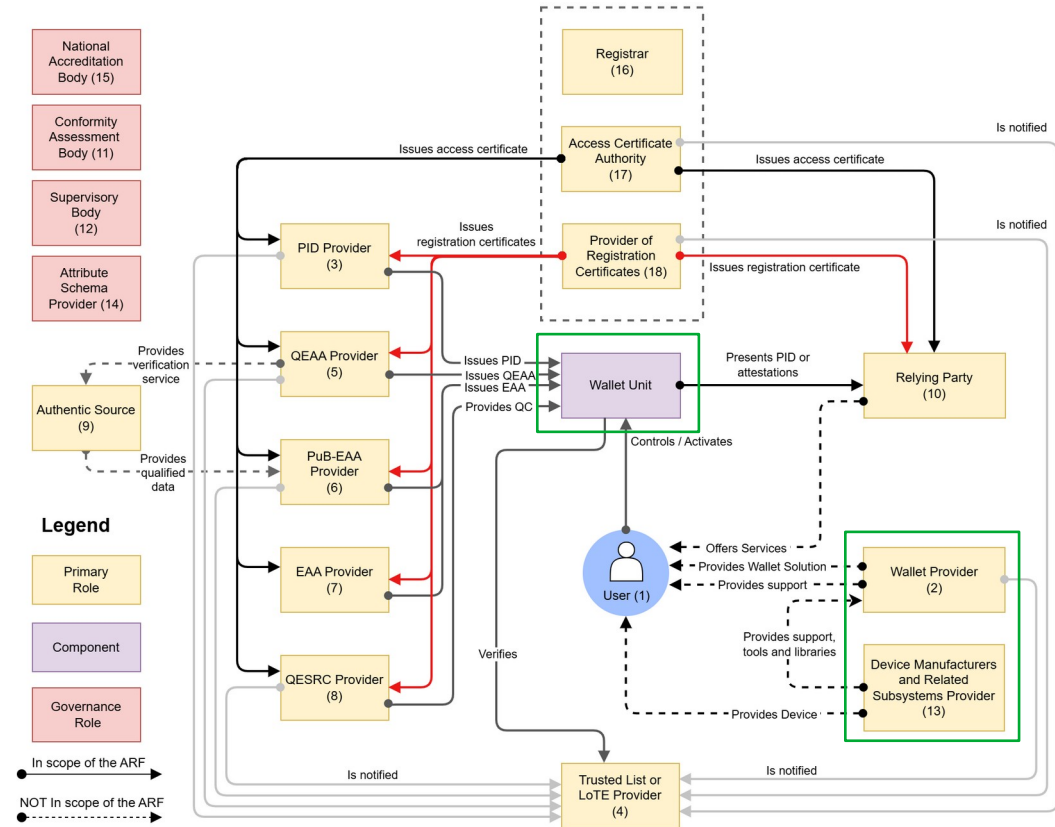

European Digital Identity Wallet (EUDIW)

- Follow up presentation to ICANN 83 TechDay in Prague
- Common pan-European framework to allow citizens to claim trusted statements about it's identity and attributes.
- EUDIW has 3 major use cases

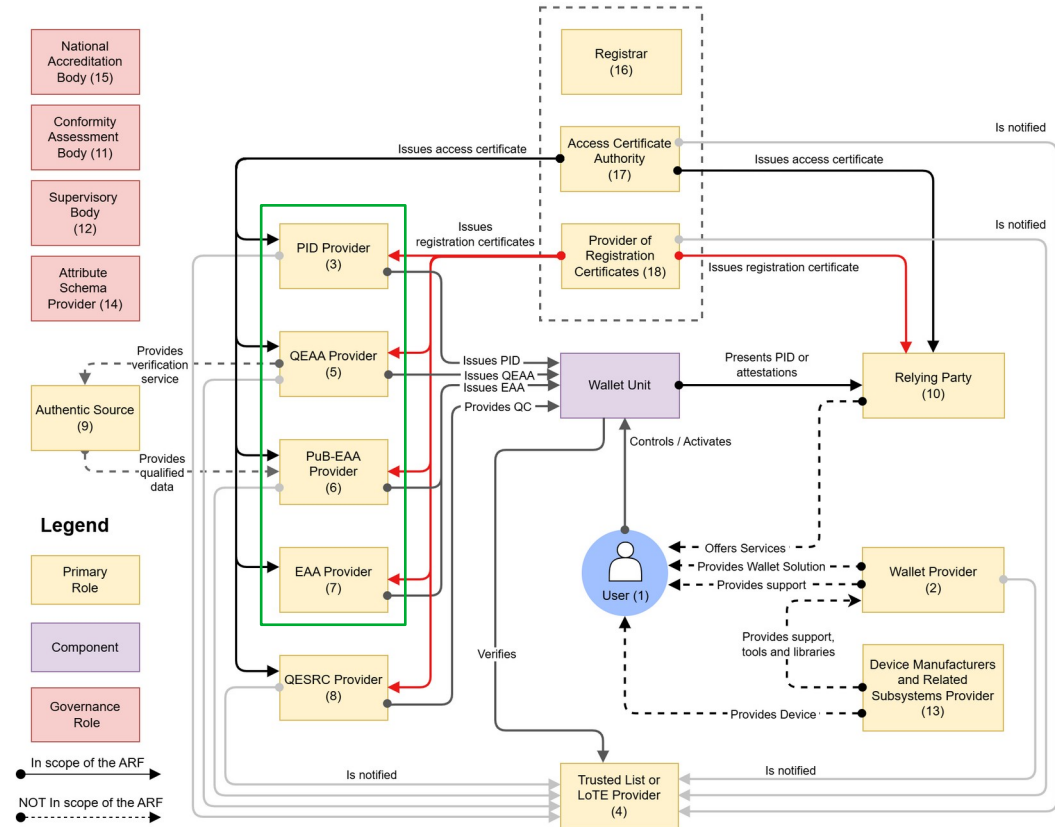

Ecosystem - <https://eudi.dev/latest/>

- Wallet is installed from Wallet provider

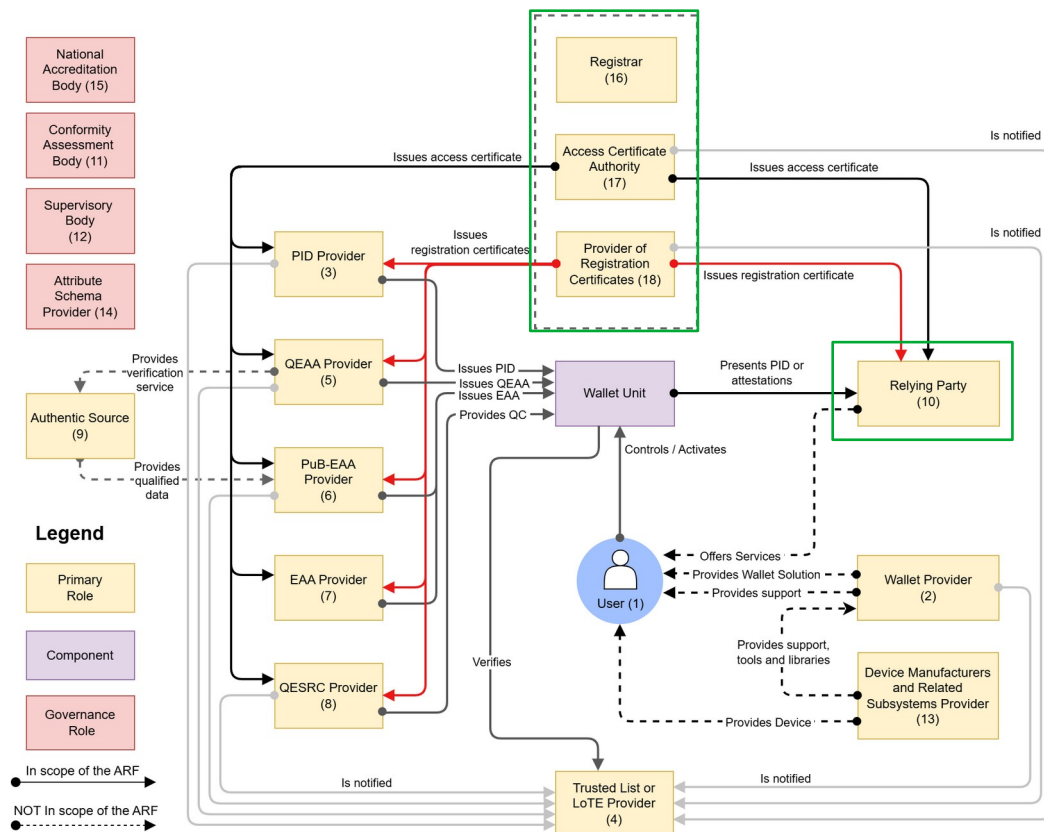

Ecosystem - <https://eudi.dev/latest/>

- Wallet is installed from Wallet provider
- Attestations are inserted from Attestation Providers

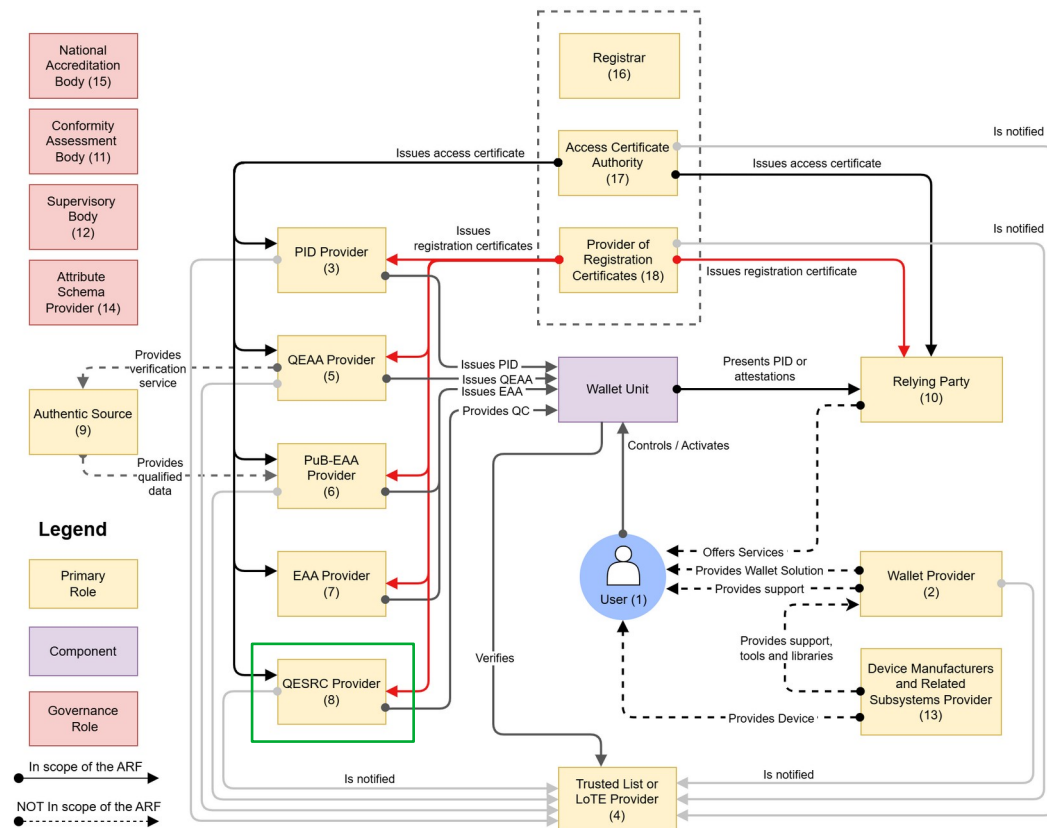

Ecosystem - <https://eudi.dev/latest/>

- Wallet is installed from Wallet provider
- Attestations are inserted from Attestation Providers
- Relying Parties are registered with Registrar and query for attestations

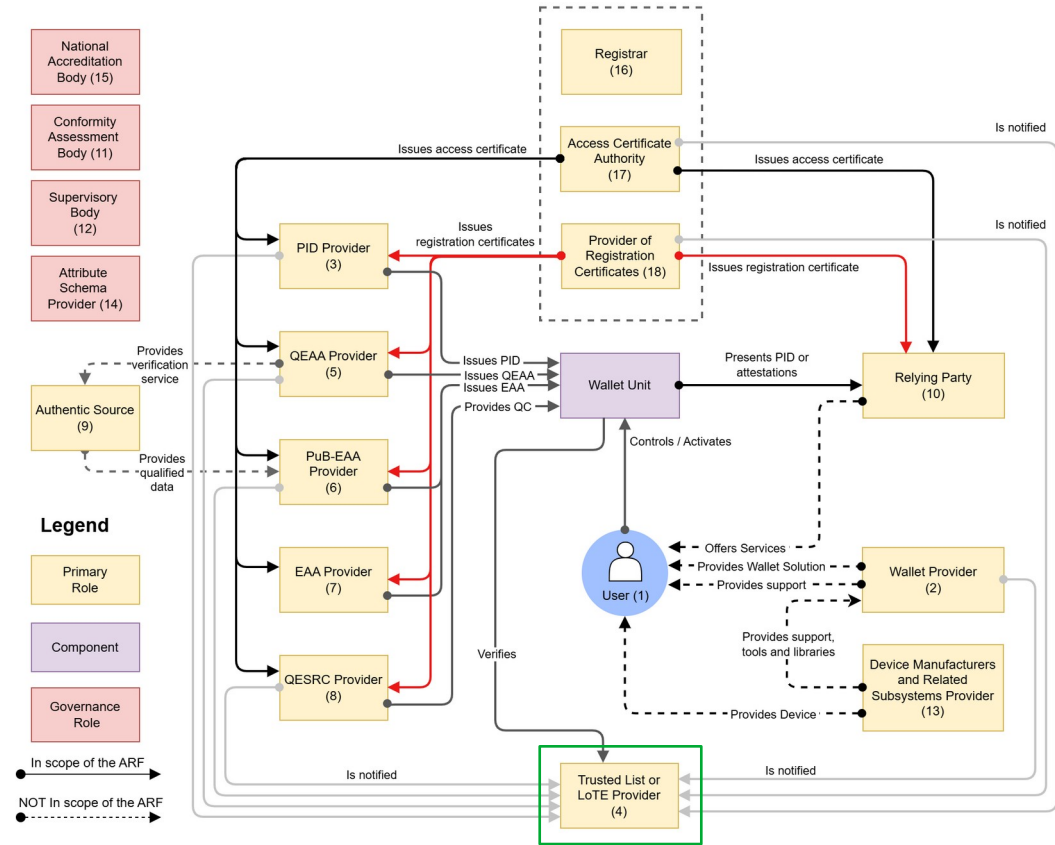

Ecosystem - <https://eudi.dev/latest/>

- Wallet is installed from Wallet provider
- Attestations are inserted from Attestation Providers
- Relying Parties are registered with Registrar and query for attestations
- Signing is done using Signature Provider

Ecosystem - <https://eudi.dev/latest/>

- Wallet is installed from Wallet provider
- Attestations are inserted from Attestation Providers
- Relying Parties are registered with Registrar and query for attestations
- Signing is done using Signature Provider
- Mutual trust is achieved via trusted lists or lists of trusted entities

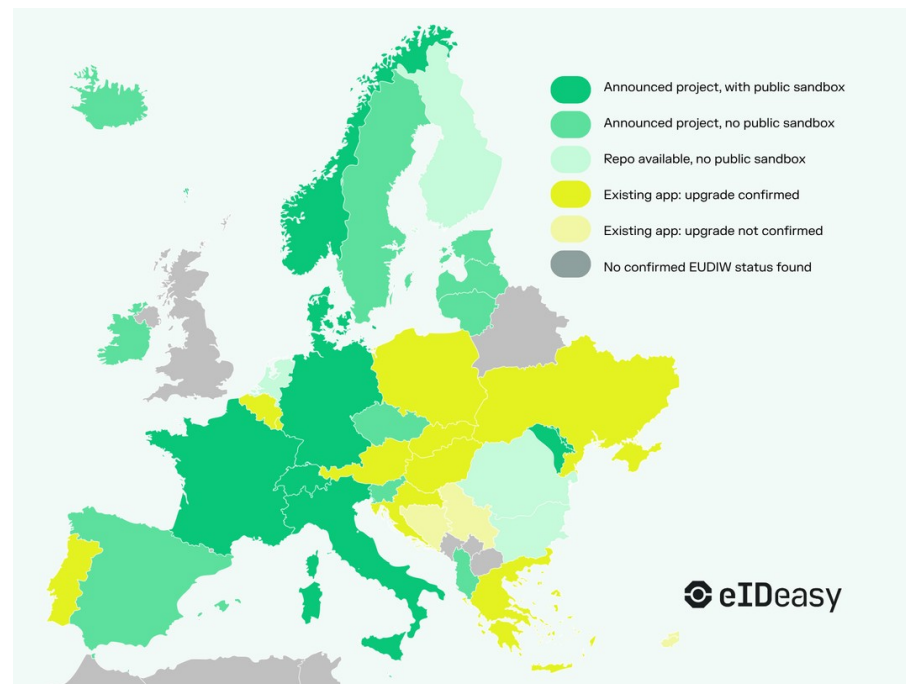

Timeline

- 24th December 2026
 - All EEA countries must provide EUDIW to their citizens
- 24th December 2027
 - All required service providers must accept EUDIW
 - Public services
 - Very large online platforms according Digital Services Act
 - Private services where strong user authentication is obliged by law or contractual obligation with exemption of microenterprises and small enterprises.
 - Transport, energy, banking, financial service, social security, health, drinking water, postal services, digital infrastructure, education and telecommunications

Where are we now?

- All countries are “in progress” state
- Few services are tracking progress
 - Some countries provided sandbox with testing app
 - Some countries are “in production” but with non-certified wallets that have limited set of features
- Germany announced launch on January 2nd 2027
 - <https://eudi-wallet.gov.de/en>

Live demo

d-you

Thank you for watching!

jaromir.talir@nic.cz