

Identity Map Worksheet

Activity: Exploring Our Identity

Directions: Write your name in the center square. In each surrounding section, list words or phrases that describe who you are. Include identities, roles, experiences, values, traditions, communities, strengths, and life experiences that have shaped you as an educator. There are no right or wrong answers.

Communities	Roles	Traditions
Strengths	YOUR NAME (Write in this box)	Values
Experiences	Challenges	Interests/ Passions

Reflection

1. Circle the three identities or experiences that most influence how you interact with students.

2. Which parts of your identity are most visible to others? Which are less visible?
3. How might your experiences shape your expectations, assumptions, or relationships with students?
4. What is one action you can take to better understand the identities and experiences of your students?
