

Self-determination is on the menu!

Utah Rural Schools Conference, July 10, 2025

Welcome to Determination Diner

Your servers....

Stephen M. Kwiatek, Ph.D.,
Utah State University

Deanna L. Taylor, M.S, M.Ed.,
Utah State Board of Education

Julianne R. Hunter M.S.Ed.,
Utah State University

Who are our patrons?

Who are you?
What is your role?
What do you hope to get out of this session?

What's on My SD/SA Plate?

Predictors Padlet

A balanced plate fuels our bodies for a healthy life.

Similarly, a well-rounded postsecondary transition plan supports youth with disabilities as they move toward adulthood.

Each section of the plate represents essential ingredients for success; our example is SD/SA.

Today's Recipe

Cooking Process• .

You will gain a foundational understanding of self-determination and self-advocacy (SD/SA) as a predictor of postschool success.

You will learn how SD/SA can be incorporated into instruction across grade and content areas.

You will learn about resources that can be applied directly to instruction and support for students with disabilities.

You will learn how to apply SD/SA resources in your setting.

Recipe for Today

Finished Dish• .

You will share the resource(s) you identified as appropriate in your role.

You will apply the identified resources in your setting.

Ingredients

Peruse the menu

Choose and order one resource to explore (Scan QR Code)

Reflect on how this might be palatable in your own setting

Add the resource to your recipe repository

After Dinner Mints

How would you recreate this recipe?

Who would you serve it to or share it with?

Other carry out (takeaway) ideas?

Leave Us a Yelp Review

Questions
Comments
Feedback

Thank You!

- Deanna.taylor@schools.utah.gov
- Julianne.hunter@usu.edu
- Stephen.kwiatek@usu.edu

