

FIVE THINGS

Pause. Reflect. Build a Stronger Island.

Greater Understanding. Stronger Connections. Better Outcomes.

From the Classroom to the Capitol

"We are all on an island."

Different roles. Shared purpose. Brighter tomorrows.

1 Five things I wish they knew about me

What would help others better understand me, my experiences, my strengths, and the pressures I face?

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

2 Five things I wish I knew about my fellow castaways

What might be happening beneath the surface that would help me better understand and support my colleagues?

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

3 Five things I wish I knew about my students

What might be happening beneath the surface that would change how I understand their behavior, choices, or response to pressure?

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

4 Five things I wish parents knew

What do I wish parents understood about what we see at school, the pressures students face, and our shared role in supporting them?

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

5 Five things I wish the district knew

What would help the district better understand the real experiences, needs, and opportunities on the ground at our schools?

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

When we understand what's beneath the surface, we can navigate the storm together.

PEOPLE • COMPASSION • COLLABORATION • BRIGHTER TOMORROWS

